ABOVE: French doors and an arched transom frame a view of Providencia Park, the Intracoastal Waterway and Palm Beach from the 1920s-inspired formal living room. JoAnn L. Munro, of Southeast Interior Design, Inc. in Jupiter, stayed true to the home's architectural style with Italian limestone-plaster walls that maintain the home's stucco texture and rosewood-finished flooring that echoes the pecky-cypress ceiling. A columned fireplace anchors the room.

ABOVE CENTER: Old Hollywood glamour and Art Deco style combine in the sunroom to create an elegant yet eclectic ambiance — a signature of designer Vivian Rios, of VMR Designs, Inc. in Delray Beach. Furnishings from Donghia, Carriage House, Odegard, Robert Allen, Maya Romanoff and Baker compose this soft cream and energetic-aqua room. Mother-of-pearl wall covering gives the space an iridescent glow.

ABOVE CENTER: Designers Allan Reyes and Tanya Artinian, of Allan Reyes Interiors in West Palm Beach, bestowed their traditional and classic talents on the master suite. Pale pink walls and white Pratesi bed linens soften the bold mix of brick red, yellow and chartreuse.

ABOVE RIGHT: Tuscan-gold, antiqued cabinetry and contrasting hand-glazed black walnut cabinetry impart a warm, European air in the kitchen. Carol Knapp and Brandon Moore, of Knapp Kitchens and More in West Palm Beach, brighten this "heart of the home" with stone countertops and flooring.

RIGHT: Imagination is brought to life in the garage through an animal-themed mural framed with sheer draperies. Muralist Dana Donaty, of Dana Donaty Designs in Delray Beach, adds whimsical charm with a white capiz seashell wind chime.
